

Fun IceBreaker Game Options

Option 1: “If”

Ask the group to sit in a circle. Write 20 'IF' questions on cards and place them (question down) in the middle of the circle. The first person takes a card, reads it out and gives their answer, comment or explanation. The card is returned to the bottom of the pile before the next person takes their card.

This is a simple icebreaker to get people talking and listening to others in the group. Keep it moving and don't play for too long. Write your own additional 'IF' questions to add to the list.

- 1.If you could go anywhere in the world, where would you go?
- 2.If I gave you $10,000, what would you spend it on?
- 3.If you could watch your favorite movie now, what would it be?

- 5.If you could wish one thing to come true this year, what would it be?

Option 2: Around the world

The leader begins by saying the name of any country, city, river, ocean or mountain that can be found in an atlas. The young person next to him must then say another name that begins with the last letter of the word just given. Each person has a definite time limit (e.g. three seconds) and no names can be repeated. For example - First person: London, Second Person: Niagara Falls, Third Person: Switzerland

Option 3: Desert Island

Announce, 'You've been exiled to a deserted island for a year. In addition to the essentials, you may take one movie, one book (which is not the Bible) and one luxury item you can carry with you i.e. not a boat to leave the island! What would you take and why?'

Option 4: Highs/Lows

Have each person share their high and low moments from the previous week. This icebreaker can be used as you get to know each other more as a group and gives you good feedback concerning individual's lives at the moment.

Option 5: Heroes

Ask each member to name three people, past or present, they admire. Why? Or, ask them if they could interview anyone in history, who would that be and why? What one or two questions would you want to ask?
