Praying silently, ask questions that bring the conversation back to Jesus. Share how your life has changed because of Jesus. Don't feel like you have to debate as Jesus has to open hearts.

'OHANA GROUP STUDY QUESTIONS

(SERIES: "CLUES: HOW CAN WE KNOW WE KNOW" WEEK 4: PSALM 139:13-16, EPHESIANS 2:10, GENESIS 1:26-27, ACTS 14:15, "ORIGIN")

Small group rules to keep in mind:

In your sharing time be as open and transparent as you comfortably feel you can. There is no need to challenge, correct, or give advice unless asked for. Be careful to not "over share". Be sensitive to give everyone an opportunity to join in. For each week, start off your discussions with the first three questions. After that, choose any of the other questions which you feel best suits your particular group.

- 1. In the message from this weekend or the video, what encouraged you, challenged you or spoke to you most and why? What applications for your life did you learn?
- 2. From this week's Scripture, what encouraged you, challenged you or spoke to you most and why?
- 3. Open your book. Take turns sharing one major insight you received from any part of this week's reading. Take time for other members to turn to each passage being highlighted.

A DEEPER LOOK

- 4. Read Psalm 139:13-16 & Ephesians 2:10. Then read the last paragraph on pg 68-69. Have you ever stopped to consider that God created you and you are His masterpiece? Share how that affects how you see yourself and the world around you.
- 5. Now read Genesis 1:26-27. How and why does the reality that you were Created give you personal meaning and purpose for life?
- 6. On pg. 68 Danny writes in the third paragraph, "However you can't get to heaven without Jesus. In most of my witnessing, I have found it more fruitful to direct the conversation back to Jesus. He is the important thing." Why is this important? What are some practical ways you can steer conversations back to Jesus rather than debates on various other topics? Go around and share.

TAKING IT HOME

7. What can/will you do this week to remind yourself and others that you have a loving God that has created you and given you a purpose for your life?
