'OHANA GROUP STUDY QUESTIONS

LEADER GUIDE

CLUES: How Can We Know We Know – Equipping apologetics series

Praying silently, ask questions that bring the conversation back to Jesus. Share how your life has changed because of Jesus. Don't feel like you have to debate as Jesus has to open hearts.

Continue to look for opportunities to encourage members in the Word and in Christ.

DISCUSSION GUIDE

Book Check

Encourage members to remain diligent in reading, highlighting and writing in their CLUES books in preparation for your 'Ohana Group discussions.

(SERIES: "CLUES: HOW CAN WE KNOW WE KNOW" WEEK 5: ISAIAH 43:6-7, 1 CORINTHIANS 10:31, MARK 12:29-31, "MEANING")

Small group rules to keep in mind:

In your sharing time be as open and transparent as you comfortably feel you can. There is no need to challenge, correct, or give advice unless asked for. Be careful to not "over share". Be sensitive to give everyone an opportunity to join in. For each week, start off your discussions with the first three questions. After that, choose any of the other questions which you feel best suits your particular group.

1. In the message from this weekend or the video, what encouraged you, challenged you or spoke to you most and why? What applications for your life did you learn?
2. From this week's Scripture, what encouraged you, challenged you or spoke to you most and why?
3. Open your book. Take turns sharing one major insight you received from any part of this week's reading. Take time for other members to turn to each passage being highlighted.

A DEEPER LOOK

4. What are things that the world reaches towards to find significance or meaning in? Ecclesiastes says that it is all meaningless apart from knowing God. Reflect on areas in your own life where you find meaning.
5. Read Mark 12:28-31. What are some things you do in your weekly routine to develop your love for God? When do you feel closest to Him? (Worship, prayer, serving, etc.)

TAKING IT HOME

6. What are some things you do to actively love those around you? (Neighbors, coworkers, family, etc) As an 'Ohana group, brainstorm some ways you can intentionally show others God's love. Get started: Commit to doing one of your ideas this week!
