
'OHANA GROUP STUDY QUESTIONS

MATTHEW 21:1-17

Before you meet: Send out a reminder and encouragement to your 'Ohana Group about attending group. Encourage your 'Ohana group to attend one of the in-person services Fridays at 6:30pm, Sundays at 8:30am or 10:30am, or watch online.

Be Prepared: Print out any of the resources you need for the night (discussion questions). Read through the questions ahead of time.

Suggested Format:

- Welcome/Fellowship
- Pray
- Discussion Questions (30-40min)
- Prayer Requests and Praises (10-20min)

As you use this guide, feel free to use as many or as little question as you need to facilitate your 'Ohana Group.

In your sharing time be as open and transparent as you comfortably feel you can. There is no need to challenge, correct, or give advice unless asked for. Be careful to not "over share". Be sensitive to give everyone an opportunity to join in. For each week, start off your discussions with the first two questions. After that, choose any of the other questions which you feel best suits your particular group.

'OHANA GROUP STUDY QUESTIONS

MATTHEW 21:1-17

1. What from the message this weekend encouraged you, challenged you, or spoke to you most, and why? What applications for your life did you learn?
2. From this week's Scripture, what encouraged you, challenged you, or spoke to you most and why?

A DEEPER LOOK

3. Many people expected the Messiah to be someone different compared to who He truly was. Can you think of a time when you expected God to work in your life in a certain way, and He worked differently?
4. If someone were to ask you the question, "Who is Jesus?" how would you respond? (verse 10)

TAKING IT HOME

5. Lou mentioned that we should consistently reframe our mindset when we approach God's word. Why is this important and how can we remind ourselves to do this on a regular basis?
6. A king is someone who has authority to rule and reign over a group of people. If Jesus is the King over your life, where do you see His increasing rule or how can you let Him have increasing rule in your life?
7. How will you prepare yourself for Easter during Holy Week? What can you do to make it a meaningful time of preparation for Easter?

MISSIONS HIGHLIGHT

Pray for Wycliffe Bible Translators. Wycliffe is a company that has the mission of getting "God's Word for every heart, in every language." Since the Bible is God's Word to us, it is something that everyone should be able to understand for themselves. When people encounter Jesus through Scripture in their own language, lives often change in amazing ways! Our missionaries Melissa and Steve work with Wycliffe in Asia. Continue to pray for Wycliffe and their missionaries as they help make God's Word available to every tongue, tribe, and nation.
